Kittrell's Springs Female College,
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868. The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies of worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents feel as that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

For Catalogue, apply to
REV. C. H. RIDDICK, President.

By Calling upon the Agency in Raleigh,
OVER THE MESSRS. TUCKER & CO'S STORE.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellence is no longer deemed necessary.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running, and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and COARSEST materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL.
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest receipts alone, and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $300,000 of losses, and SEVEN CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a safe business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

CONSERVATIVE STATE CONVENTION.

Grand Rally of the Representatives of the People!

The White Men of North Carolina in Council!

Yesterday being the day appointed, by the State Conservative Executive Committee, for the assembling of the Conservatives of North Carolina, in Convention, the spacious and elegant Tucker Hall, on its lower floor, was filled before the hour of meeting. A number of persons, including ladies, were in the galleries, deeply interested spectators of the scene.

The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock, A. M., by Col. Thos. A. Allison, of the County of Iredell, who moved that, for the purpose of temporary organization, R. H. SMITH, Esq., of Halifax, be invited to take the Chair.

The motion having been unanimously adopted,

Mr. Smith took the Chair, amid the applause of the Convention.

The Chairman, in returning his acknowledgments, remarked that only a few moments before had he been apprised of the intended honor. He hardly knew, therefore, in what terms to address the Convention. It had met under extraordinary circumstances. If ever there was a time when the people should speak out and assert their rights, (if they had any rights left,) this was, emphatically, the time. Threatened with the overthrow of our institutions, and what little remnant of liberty we have left, it was both the privilege and the duty of the people to confer together for the good of the country. Being but the temporary Chairman, he would say no more than to counsel the Convention to act promptly and vigorously—to do nothing in passion or heat,—but circumspectly and prudently to adopt such measures as were best calculated to advance the political objects of the people.

On motion of the Hon. Thomas Bragg, of Wake, Messrs. Seaton Gales, J. A. Engelhard, Lewis Hanes and Jordan Stone were requested to act as temporary Secretaries of the Convention.

The list of the Counties was then called, when the following delegates came forward and had their names recorded, viz:

Alamance.—R. Y. McAden, T. M. Holt, E. M. Cooke, Albert Murray, T. G. McLean, J. F. Hunter, Geo. Bason, Jas. E. Boyd, J. W. Stockard, A. C. McAlister.

Transylvania.—Hon. A. S. Merrimon (Proxy.)

On motion of Col. Walter L. Steele, of Richmond, it was ordered that the temporary Chairman appoint a committee of two delegates from each Congressional District to recommend permanent officers of the Convention. Whereupon, the Chairman appointed the following gentlemen, viz:

First District—Rev. R. O. Burton, R. B. Peebles.

Second District—Jno. Hughes, Dr. A. J. DeRossett.

Third District—W. L. Steele, Jno. D. Taylor.

Fourth District—P. C. Cameron, D. G. Fowle.

Fifth District—J. R. McLean, B. B. Roberts.

Sixth District—F. E. Shober, R. F. Simonton.

Seventh District—A. C. Avery, Marcus Erwin.

Pending the retirement of the Committee, loud calls from all parts of the Hall brought the Hon. ZEBULON B. VANCE to his feet.—He commenced by remarking, in his own peculiar style, that he once heard of an Irishman, who was looking at one of those donkey engines that are used in unloading ships. Gazing indignantly at it a while, he exclaimed: "Arrah, ye may puff and smoke and rattle away, tell ye's clane out of breath, and do the work of twenty men at that, but, blast ye, ye can't vote!" So, Mr. Chairman, I may puff and smoke, but I can't vote, for all that. Still, sir, though I may be deprived of all political power in the land of my affections and nativity, yet I can still claim to be a white man; and, what is more, I have no prejudices against my own color. I may add that I have none against the black race. They have behaved well in the past, as a general rule, and whenever they have gone astray, it has been almost invariably at the instigation of white men of their own color,—against the statesmen and patriots, and sages, who had illustrated our annals in the past; he had not yielded, thank God! to the temptations of the times so far, as to attempt or desire to disguise himself by donning a black livery. As an old Friend once said, he was "still alive and on praying ground." He thanked Heaven that he was surrounded by so many intelligent and patriotic representative gentlemen of the State, so many of his former associates—the true men who, "though they had sworn to their own hurt, had changed not"—who did not seek to commend their own loyalty by forswearing themselves, and proving recreant to every former profession. It was, indeed, a privilege, for which he was gratified, to be environed by such men.

He predicted that the dawning of a better day was at hand. Everything indicated its approach. The light comes from the sun, and we can tell when daylight approaches, if we will watch the stars, and the lesser orbs of night. When the God of Day sends out his herald beams, the smaller luminaries, with commendable modesty, get out of the way. That time is coming. "I know it," said he,—"I feel it in my bones!" From every quarter, the signs of reaction are auspicious.

In North Carolina, we have a white majority of 35,000—yet they were so prostrate and depressed by misfortune as to allow the late election to go by default. Now, if we will remember what we have been in the past, who we are now, and to whom we are kin,—will arouse ourselves and put on the bearing of men,—will make a vigorous and active canvass, we shall atone for the past and save North Carolina. No argument is necessary. A man who needs an argument to convince him, in this exigency, of his duty, is a fool, upon whom argument would be waste of breath. It is only necessary to urge our people to do their duty, and we will secure the government to the hands of the intelligent, tax-paying, white men of North Carolina. This will be best for all races and colors.

[At every stage of his remarks, the eloquent speaker was greeted with enthusiastic acclamations.]

The Hon. Wm. A. Graham was next vociferously called for. This distinguished gentleman made a few excellent remarks, but, as he subsequently spoke at greater length, we forbear a report of them here.

The Hon. R. Y. McAden next made a few appropriate remarks, in response to loud calls. He expressed his profound gratification at the distinguished and patriotic character of the Convention, and augured the best results from its assemblage. He believed and hoped that a brighter day was dawning for North Carolina, the South and the Union.

The enthusiastic invitations of the Convention next brought the Hon. Weldon N. Edwards to his feet. He said that the Convention sought to impose upon him a task to which he was inadequate. Extreme age rendered him unfit to afford entertainment to such a body. "Old as I am," said the venerable patriot, "I have come here simply to signify my approval of this meeting, to endorse its action, and to commit my fortunes, good or bad, to the same barque in which are to be committed those of the Anglo Saxon race!" This sentiment was received with long continued applause.

The Hon. Thomas Bragg next came forward, in obedience to prolonged calls. He commenced by remarking that the Convention had assembled under peculiar circumstances. The faces around him were familiar. He saw many with whom he had associated in the past, and he hoped that their deliberations would redound to the honor and welfare of the State. For one, he was not altogether disappointed at the state of things under which we are laboring, for he had expected it,—however improbable, a few short years ago, it might have been deemed. We are now under a grinding despotism, (there is no use in spacing phrases,)—without law or liberty, and the Constitution of our fathers regarded as no more than a bit of waste paper. Still, he had an abiding faith that all would yet be well. The people of the country will do their duty, and after a while our spoliated privileges would be, in some measure, restored. The justice and good sense of the masses will return to them and prevail.—Coming events cast their shadows before. Much of the injustice that has been done us,—most of the iniquitous legislation that has been consummated, will be wiped out. We must aid in this great movement. We must go to work actively and enlighten the people. We must arouse them to a sense of their duty. We must resist our enemies in every lawful manner,—face to face and breast to breast,—and then, if we go down, we shall, at least, fall like men! (Great applause.)

Here the Committee returned, and the Hon. D. G. Fowle, Chairman of the Committee, reported the following list of permanent officers of the Convention, viz:

FOR PRESIDENT.

HON. WILLIAM A. GRAHAM.

VICE PRESIDENTS.

Hon. Weldon N. Edwards, Warren.
Hon. Lewis Hanes, Davidson.
Richard H. Smith, Halifax.
Samuel Radcliffe, Craven.
John W. Leak, Richmond.
J. P. H. Ross, Wake.
Jesse H. Lindsay, Guilford.
John H. McLaughlin, Iredell.
A. T. Davidson, Macon.
Col. E. D. Hall, New Hanover.
Samuel McD. Tate, Burke.
William M. Robbins, Rowan.
R. F. Armfield, Wilkes.

SECRETARIES.

Seaton Gales, of the Raleigh Sentinel.
J. A. Engelhard, of the Wil. Journal.
Jordan Stone, of the Roanoke News.
W. P. Drake, Statesville American.
J. H. Brinn, of the Newbern Herald.

The nominations were unanimously ratified,—the name of each gentleman, as announced, having been received with loud plaudits.

The temporary Chairman having requested the Hon. Thomas Bragg and Col. Thos. A. Allison to conduct Gov. Graham to the stand, that gentleman came forward and assumed the Chair, amid the hearty cheers of the large and enthusiastic audience.

Gov. Graham said that although he had expected to take his full share in the deliberations of the Convention, nothing could surprise him more than this call to preside over it. He had no intimation that such would be the case, and would, therefore, apologize, in advance, for any deficiencies in what he might have to say. He thanked the Convention heartily for the appreciation of himself implied in the honor conferred, and would endeavor to discharge the duties imposed upon him to the best of his ability.

We had met for purposes of deliberation on the political situation. A desolating and expensive war had swept over the land, and the question now to be settled is whether, after all, we have PEACE. The President of the United States declares that we have,—the Judicial Department of the land has so decided, (especially has Judge Nelson emphatically so declared in the Eagan Habeas Corpus case.) But Congress implies, by its action, that war still prevails. Surely, if so, war only exists by a fiction of law, of which the people are profoundly ignorant. They had supposed that the armies of the South, in obedience to the exactions made upon them. They did all this for the sake of Peace. And yet Congress is not satisfied. Another Convention has been called by it,—not by the State,—bringing in the colored race as voters—a thing unknown before,—and through that agency it is sought to change entirely our State government and place us under a new and anomalous one. He expressed his belief that the people of the North will not sanction this. They will find a departure from the golden rule mischievous and dangerous; and as they claim the regulation of their own internal affairs, so, when they come to act with deliberation and dispassion, they will do justice by restoring to the people of North Carolina the same great right.—Justice is so natural,—a sense of right so invariably prevails,—that, when the matter is presented fairly, they will say "this is right." And this conclusion will be hastened, when, forgetting latter prejudices, they go back to the past and remember that it was the Southern Washington who compelled Gage to raise the seige of Boston, and that it was the troops of North Carolina and Virginia who, on the Hudson, amid the hills of Jersey, in Pennsylvania, and down to the Brandywine, broke the back of British power.

Gov. G. cited the case of the Dorr rebellion, and the judicial decision therein, to prove that the forms of government can never be rightfully changed, except by those who at the time exercise the right of suffrage, and, accordingly, declared that the present attempt of Congress to change those of the Southern States was revolutionary.—But in the case of this attempted change,—on this Constitution which is to be presented to the people,—we have a right to vote, and it will be our fault if it is fastened upon us. We have a majority of over 30,000 registered white voters, and the question is whether they will take the blacks into political partnership. "I," said Gov. G., "with the kindest feelings to that race, say No!" Political association cannot come until social association shall precede it.—We are not without observation. Where has the experiment ever succeeded?—[The Speaker here entered into a forcible recital of the effects of negro suffrage and rule in Hayti and Jamaica.] With these examples before us, shall we establish it? A good deal had been said about "impartial suffrage," with certain qualifications of property or intelligence as the test. He was opposed to disfranchising any white man in North Carolina. And as to the blacks, while some of them, under the test, might be qualified, yet the line of color was the true line of demarcation; and that would be best for all races. Stability in government is indispensable.

Gov. G. expressed the hope that the present state of things would cease. If the men in power have no commiseration, the great masses can feel the movings of sympathy. There are evidences of this everywhere. He was sure that there was no desire here to perpetuate hatreds. Unfortunate as the war was, it had had, and would still have, the effect of making the world think more highly of this country. Although, for the present, prejudices might exist, and clouds might impend over the names of some, history will accord to the people of North and South alike the highest meed of admiration for a heroism, prowess and manhood, such as the world never saw before. Their mutual achievements are so many common exhibitions of the greatness of the American people.

The Speaker next pronounced a high eulogy upon the Judiciary of the land, and expressed high hopes from that quarter, and indulged in an eloquent tribute to President Johnson. After again returning his acknowledgments, he took his seat amid great applause.

[The foregoing is a most insufficient and meagre abstract of this great speech, which was received with great delight by the Convention, and which, we hope, will yet be written out for publication.]

Their respective positions.

On motion, the Rules of Order of the House of Commons, as far as applicable, were adopted for the government of this Convention.

Col. E. D. Hall, of New Hanover, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, viz:

Resolved, That, in the efforts we are about to make, to save the country from humiliation and ruin, we will put aside all former party predilections, and know only a common purpose to preserve civil liberty and restore a Constitutional Union.

On motion of Col. W. L. Steele, the President was directed to appoint a Committee of Sixteen,—two from each Judicial District,—to prepare Resolutions and other business for the Convention; whereupon,

The President named the following gentlemen:

1st. District.—J. B. Hare, Richard H. Smith.
2nd.—M. E. Manly, W. G. Morrisey
3rd.—Thomas Bragg, D. S. Hill.
4th.—M. Q. Waddell, P. C. Cameron.
5th.—W. L. Steele, J. D. Taylor.
6th.—Z. B. Vance, Lewis Hanes.
7th.—A. C. Avery, R. F. Armfield.
8th.—A. S. Merrimon, A. T. Davidson.

On motion of Col. J. F. Hoke, of Lincoln, a Committee of Five was ordered, to report on Plan of Organization, &c.

The Chair appointed the following gentlemen to constitute the Committee, viz: Jno. F. Hoke, D. G. Fowle, Col. W. J. Green, Col. G. N. Folk, Jno. Hughes.

On motion, the Convention then adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

From the Charleston Mercury.

MOBOCRACY.

Early in the afternoon of yesterday we were informed, through the attention of a military officer in person, that the military were in possession of facts which led them to apprehend that a serious attempt was in contemplation on the part of an armed negro mob, put forward by their white co-adjutors, to assault with violence the office of the Charleston Mercury. Precautions were taken by the military to preserve order, and the city police were put upon the alert, and a force kept in readiness in case of need.

We state these things as facts; and we have a few remarks to make upon the subject.

We deprecate exceedingly a public disturbance, but if it is desired by the negroes or negroites in Charleston to have a row, they can have it, and a good one. The white men of Charleston are not all dead, and although they would avoid collision, if violence be inaugurated by Radicals and negroes, the responsibility of the consequences will rest with the latter.

In any event, we have but to say that the Charleston Mercury will pursue its course unmoved by the threats of ruffians or the demonstrations of negroes. We publish a WHITE MAN'S PAPER in a white man's country; and it is our intention to uphold the rights of white men and expound their oppressions, whether against the clamors of a revolutionary body of whites in Washington or an unconstitutional assembly of blacks in Charleston.

And we are much mistaken if there are not friends enough of the Mercury amongst the white men of Charleston effectually to protect this office, and with it their rights and the liberty of the press, against all the negroes and their instigators between the Ashley and the Cooper rivers.

The Agricultural Department has presented a memorial to Congress, asking the repeal of the law imposing a duty of 20 per cent. on imported cattle, when they are introduced for the purpose of improving the breed.

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

It has been many years since we have witnessed such an assemblage of the true men of North Carolina as convened in this city, on yesterday, at Tucker Hall. The recent bad weather, and the excessive scarcity of money among the people, led us to fear that but few could possibly attend; but the intense interest which the situation excites, and the importance of the issues now pending, brought together, from all parts of the State, one of the most intelligent, substantial and reliable bodies of men which has been called together for years. For position, ability and public usefulness, from the venerable sage, to the young strong men of the State, the Conservative Convention, now in session, will compare favorably with any body which has, at any time, met in this City.

So far as we can judge, public meetings had been held in about seventy Counties of the State, and perhaps six hundred delegates have been appointed, yet, under all the disadvantages surrounding them, about fifty Counties are represented by nearly three hundred delegates. The spirit of the Convention is of the best character. Whatever former differences of opinion may have heretofore divided them, the delegates are now one in the great object of securing constitutional liberty and maintaining intact the Constitution of the United States and the Union under the Constitution. They are unanimous in doing full justice to the colored race, but determined to use every legitimate effort to maintain the supremacy of the white race in all matters of government. The few speeches made were in the happiest vein, and the impromptu speech of Gov. Graham, on being called to the chair, has seldom been surpassed.

THE RELIEF QUESTION.

After two or three days' discussion of Mr. Rodman's ordinance for the relief of the people, it was passed, as it came from the committee, on yesterday. This subject has consumed the time of the "Constitutional" Convention, to the exclusion of other matters. We have heretofore given our readers a summary of the ordinance, but will publish it when we have space, for the better information of our readers.

SPIRIT OF THE REPUBLICAN PRESS.

The Rump Congress Radicals are driving their machine altogether too fast for even their own party. Thus, the Albany Evening Journal asks:

"Do the Republican leaders in Congress wish to justify the charge of the Democracy that they are bent upon usurpation and revolution? Have they become so indifferent to popular opinion that they are prepared to remove any obstacle which may be presented to their policy, regardless of every constitutional provision? We are not ready to believe this; yet we shall be compelled to do so if the purposes now announced are really carried into effect."

The Springfield Republican (sarcastically) says:

"The new Supreme Court bill is too narrow in its scope, and we suggest that it be amended so as to prohibit that court from this Congress may pass laws which provide for all possible contingencies, and establish a precedent which will be of inestimable value to any party that may control Congress hereafter, and want to pass measures of unquestionable unconstitutionality. Each Congress can thus take care of itself.

The Nation is perfectly satisfied, by the declarations of the leading members of the Republican party, that they will "take no step backward;" but it fears their action will bring men into power who will take several "steps backwards," which will amount to about the same thing, so far as the welfare of the country is concerned."

The State Conservative Convention will assemble, this morning, at 10 o'clock, in Tucker Hall.

BISHOP ATKINSON'S LECTURE.

We proceed to lay before our readers, to-day, some account of the very interesting lecture delivered in the Commons Hall, by Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D. LLD., Bishop of North Carolina, on Monday evening, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. This sketch can in no measure portray the pleasant and agreeable manner of delivery, in conversational tone, the fluent and easy style, and the interest of the audience.

The distinguished Lecturer commenced with a rapid and vivid grouping of the points of contrast and similarity between American, French and British eloquence, and held that though many had risen to the highest eminence, that yet it was the glory of England that she excelled. In his own profession, to which, perhaps, he might be most inclined to look for examples of eloquence, it was granted that the French pulpit, including such men as Massillon, Bossuet and others, was unequalled in true eloquence, but not in depth and vigor of thought and strength of expression, as illustrated by the eminent Bishop Butler.—But in those spheres of oratory to which the eyes of the public, generally, were directed, in deliberative assemblies and representative bodies, Great Britain seemed to him to surpass all others. Even Patrick Henry never had the power over an audience that the Earl of Chatham possessed, nor could the great trio of the American Senate, eloquent and powerful though they were, be said to equal the three of the British Commons of a later date, Fox, Burke and Pitt. And this was the more to be wondered at, as the English are slow, cautious and hesitating in speech—not so ready in the use of language nor so given to speech making as the Americans. He thought it was due to two things, the influence of free institutions and the high cultivation of the people; Continental nations lacked the former, Americans the latter.

To illustrate the exceeding culture of their statesmen, the lecturer, besides other instances, adduced the cases of the two perhaps most distinguished of the present day, Lord Derby and Mr. Gladstone. The former had given to the world the most elegant and literal translation of Homer, and the latter some most just and exquisite criticisms and renderings of Homer.

He proceeded to remark that he was especially desirous of hearing the distinguished orators of England, and that he was fortunate enough to have the opportunity in his power, during his visit to England in 1866, as Parliament had not been prorogued and there had been a long and earnest discussion on the Reform measures. First he spoke of the difficulty of entering either of the Houses of Parliament, there being no provision made as in American legislatures for the accommodation of the people; and, as the speaker thought, from wise principles. Then, with a rapid description of the Chambers themselves, in which the members sat; their inconvenience and unfitness for the purposes used, the House of Commons being too small by far to accommodate the body, and the House of Lords unsuited for speaking, he proceeded to give the personnel of the House of Lords. In this narrative, which was highly interesting and unaffected, and which it is impossible to record, he glanced at the galleries occupied by the Ladies of the Realm, and with some pleasantry said that an equal number of ladies in Raleigh, or any other Southern city, might be found to surpass the array of beauty of the English aristocracy. After this he mentioned several interesting circumstances in the arrangement of seats, habits and manners, relative situation of majority and minority, and the leaders of the parties; and then described the appearance of Lord Derby, whom he had come to hear especially, in the explanation of his policy. He had then, as the leader of the Conservative party, been called on by the Queen to form a Cabinet, to succeed Lord Russell. His position therefore was one of peculiar responsibility, and hence every word was carefully weighed and cautiously uttered; and though possessed of great powers of mind, the highest degree of culture, the most classic elegance of style, strong sarcastic power which he could use to the greatest advantage, this effort was hardly a fair example of what he could do. Occasionally he would show his sarcasm in most withering rebuke of the administration of his political opponent, Lord Russell. As soon as he finished his speech, that Earl replied. His appearance did not contrast well with that of Lord Derby, and though gifted with not a high order of talent, yet possessing great intelligence, being the representative of a large and influential family, and centering in himself the power of the old Whig party, and having the utmost confidence in himself and his principles, he had risen to places of trust and to be leader in the House of Lords of the Liberal Party. Nor did his oratory any more than his appearance contrast favorably with that of Lord Derby; speaking in a low tone of voice, indistinct, and gazing into his hat, which he held in his hand. The Lords, by the way, sit with their hats on, removing them when they rise to speak. After him rose one, who twenty-five years ago was a great leader, at whose rising the galleries were emptied, and even the noble peers made unseemly haste to avoid hearing him, whose former greatness and venerable appearance might have commanded more respect. It was Lord Brougham, whose speech on the occasion was hardly more than senile twaddle.

A few days after, having an opportunity of hearing Mr. Gladstone make a motion with reference to Church Rates, he entered the House of Commons. Mr. Gladstone possessed many of the prime characteristics of an eloquent speaker, those very characteristics befitting him to be the leader of a great party. Gifted with the very highest order of intellect, the greatest sensibility, the most honest and honorable purpose, possessed too of the most extreme culture, the finest flow of pure English, of irreproachable moral character and commanding appearance, he is one to fill the eye and heart of the people. And yet in love with novelty, fond of that which is new and strange, unable often to control his emotions and his speech, he is apt to change, and unable to govern the movements of a party. His speech, on this occasion, was short and to the point, simply making his motion and enforcing it, leaving the burden of debate to fall on his strongest coadjutor, Sir. Roundell Palmer. Mr. Gladstone's opponent replied at once. Mr. D'Israeli is a man totally different. Of a high order of talent and culture, of moral character, though not religious like his competitor, he is cool, deliberate, impassive, without the slightest passion or emotion, capable of control, a politician who can manage (suspected often too of trickery,) to accomplish any party measure, and owing to the age of Lord Derby, the virtual leader of the Conservative party and the administration.—The one able to excel in vehement invective and denunciation; the other, in bitter and deliberate sarcasm. Sir Roundell Palmer's speech was a lawyer's speech, learned, elaborate and in some parts truly eloquent.

Of other members of Parliament he would speak, had he time. Two whom he had not heard he must notice, Mr. Bright and Mr. Lowe. The first of these a genuine demagogue, with much that makes him a formidable power; the latter, though not so widely known, possessed of great ability, and the only one who had moral courage to denounce the measures of his own party.

Of distinguished pulpit orators, the Lecturer placed the Bishop of Oxford at the head. His pulpit exercises were hardly a fair test of his powers, as he was often and indeed usually (from his frequent engagements) unable to make elaborate preparation. Yet such was his power in oratory, and such his store of knowledge, such his vast reputation, that he always preached to crowded houses. But not so much in the pulpit, as in deliberative bodies, was his marvellous capability seen. He possessed that wonderful faculty of arriving at the points of difference and agreement in speakers, of presenting that which would harmonize views. So that his influence in such assemblies was immense.

Entirely different was the power of Mr. Liddon. He was a great student, and prepared his discourses with care and toil.—He preached therefore seldom, but his sermons were replete with all that would make them excellent, and when published were models of pulpit eloquence.

Dean Magee, of Ireland, was of a nation of orators, whose life, if spared, would show his ability.

Such is in some measure the outline of the Bishop's lecture. It was interspersed with many evidences of historic research and acute observation, and was listened to with evident interest throughout. It was nearly an hour and a half long, yet the time was so pleasantly occupied one would not suppose it had fled. While the Hall was well filled and by a most select and intelligent audtory, we wish for the credit of Raleigh, and the occasion that called it together, that the Hall had been crowded.

SARGENT'S Company gave a pleasing exhibition last evening, on occasion of Mr. Phelps' benefit. Go to-night and see the great Shaksperian play—Macbeth.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 5, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. May, of the Convention.

Mr. Patrick presented a memorial from a colored man of his county, praying for a divorce. Referred.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, submitted two reports, from the Committee on Corporations, viz:

On an ordinance in regard to Bank issues, introduced by Mr. Tourgee, and asked to be discharged from its further consideration. So ordered.

On an ordinance in relation to a lien law; as the matter had been settled, asking to be discharged from its further consideration.

Mr. Rich, a resolution that the Finance Committee be instructed to negotiate a loan of $500 for contingent expenses, which shall be included in the tax.

Rules suspended, on motion of Mr. Rich, in order that the resolution might go at once to the Committee. The resolution was then adopted.

Mr. Rodman, a resolution in favor of J. S. Snow, Sheriff of Halifax. Lies over.

Mr. Swoet requested that the report of the Committee on Legislature be recommitted to that Committee. No objection.

Mr. Forkner moved the reference of the report of Gen. Canby, in relation to the returns of the late election, to the Committee on Elections and Privileges.—Agreed to.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, moved that the report of the Committee on Homesteads be recommitted to that Committee for revision. Agreed to.

Mr. Ellis wished to call up his resolution, offered a few days ago, in regard to memoralizing Congress to aid the President of the United States in testing the constitutionality of the Reconstruction acts.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, objected.

Mr. Congleton wished to dispose of the Relief Bill, before anything else was done.

Mr. Ellis moved to suspend the rules, in order to take up his resolution.

Mr. Tourgee raised a point of order, that the rules cannot be suspended, unless by a resolution offered the day previous; which point was sustained.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS—THE RELIEF ORDINANCE.

The question recurred upon Hood's (negro) motion, made yesterday, to postpone the matter until the report of the Committee on Homesteads was disposed of.

Mr. Tourgee objected to the postponement.

Harris, of Wake, (negro) favored it.

Mr. Tourgee again urged his objections to the postponement of the question.

Mr. Watts objected to the postponement. He thought that gentlemen were trying to dodge the issue and stave off the question. Why not adopt the ordinance, as amended by Mr. Tourgee? That would meet the demands of the case.

Hood (negro,) interrupted Mr. Watts, by stating that he withdrew the motion.

Mr. Rich said he would renew the motion, for the reason that he wished to hear from the various Sheriffs, as to the amount of executions levied in their Counties, in accordance with his resolution passed some days ago.

Galloway, (negro,) wished to reply to Mr. Watts, in order that his speech, of yesterday, might not be misrepresented, but was ruled out of order.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, stated that he was authorized to say, in behalf of the Committee on Homesteads, that the Committee would report a prospective Homestead law.

Mr. Welker was opposed to any postponement

Mr. Congleton objected to postpone until the Sheriffs could be heard from.

Mr. May thought the house unprepared to act wisely in the matter; therefore he was in favor of postponement.

Mr. Rodman thought there would be some propriety in postponing, if there was any probability of any thing suggesting itself to suit the ideas of the majority; but there was such a diversity of opinion, that he thought they had better come to a test vote at once.

Mr. Heaton thought that Mr. Rodman's bill was only temporary, and did not aim at the violation of private contracts, but only pointed out the remedy. But when the time came and the gentleman asked him to incorporate such a thing into the Constitution, he would oppose it with all his power.

The motion to postpone until Monday next, and make it the special order, at 12 o'clock, was put and lost.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, spoke against the ordinance. He said the gentlemen advocating the measure had admitted that it was in some measure repudiative. Such action was unjust, dishonest and unconstitutional. Mr. K. thought Mr. Graham's substitute was the fairest proposition yet offered, and even that he thought in some measure objectionable. He was for staying executions for a time, but the idea of suspending the functions of the Courts was unconstitutional and a dangerous piece of legislation.

Mr. Abbott wished to settle the matter to-day. He would support the ordinance of Mr. Rodman, as amended by Mr. Tourgee.

The vote was next taken on Mr. Graham's substitute. The yeas and nays being called for, resulted yeas 18, nays 88.

The substitute of Mr. Jones, of Washington, was next taken up, when, the yeas and nays being called, it was lost—yeas 27, nays 69.

Mr. Tourgee then wished to offer his amendment.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, arose to a point of order. He said that, in accordance with a resolution recently passed, the house should go into the Committee of the Whole at this hour, (12,) to consider the Constitution.

The Chair refused to sustain the point.

Mr. Tourgee was then allowed to offer his amendment.

Mr. Heaton was opposed to the amendment of Mr. Tourgee, and hoped it would be voted down.

Mr. Welker withdrew his amendment, offered last Saturday, as Mr. Tourgee's covered the whole ground.

Mr. Heaton could not vote for Mr. Rodman's measure, as amended by Mr. Tourgee's amendment.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, again urged his objection both to the amendment and to the original. It was a monstrosity.

Mr. King, of Lincoln, thought that if this measure was passed, at the very next Legislature there would come up a clamor from the same men for utter repudiation.—He hoped that every honest man would vote against the measure.

Mr. Heaton thought there should be a call of the House.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) said the Sergeant-at-arms should come forward and see that members were in their seats.

The President ordered the Secretary to make a call of the House.

The question upon the amendment was then put. The yeas and nays having been called for, resulted, yeas 39, nays 67.

The question recurred on the original ordinance.

Mr. Pool offered an amendment, which was accepted by Mr. Rodman.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, again, in a speech of some length, gave his reasons for objecting to the whole matter. His objections were materially the same as given in his remarks on Saturday last.

Mr. Tourgee moved to lay the ordinance on the table. The yeas and nays being called, resulted, yeas 44, nays 58.

Mr. Watts moved to strike out the amendment, offered by Mr. Pool.

Mr. Tourgee moved a substitute.

Mr. Heaton said that the substitute was offered in ridicule, and therefore, could not be entertained.

Mr. Watts insisted upon his motion, which, after some debate, was adopted.

Galloway (negro) called for the previous question upon the original ordinance.

The call was sustained, and the yeas and nays were called, and the vote stood, yeas 57, nays 39.

The ordinance, as reported from the Committee, was then declared adopted.—[The ordinance has heretofore been published.]

Mr. Laflin said that as he was requested by one of the Conservative members of this Convention, to ask the use of the Hall for the Conservative Convention this evening, (Tucker Hall being used by a Theatrical Company,) he therefore moved that this Hall be tendered to that body.

Mr. Candler moved to lay the motion on the table, but withdrew it, on being remonstrated with by Hood (negro) and a good many others.

Mr. Fullings moved to amend by "granting the request," but not "to tender."

The motion, as amended, was carried.

On motion of Mr. Heaton, the article of the Constitution, as reported by the Committee of the Whole, in regard to Governor and Executive Officers, was next taken up.

Mr. Heaton moved to strike out "2 years," as the term of office, and insert "3."

Mr. Watts favored four.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, was speaking upon the subject, when

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) stated there was a question as to whether there was a quorum in their seats, and suggested the propriety of calling on the Sergeant-at-arms to see that the members take their seats.

Mr. Tourgee called him to order, stating that an attendance could not be enforced, except when a vote was being taken.

Harris, (negro,) said he was not out of order. His was only a suggestion.

Mr. Jones resumed, saying that since the announcement that the mileage would be paid to day, that there could be observed a disposition, on the part of the House, to let alone everything connected with Constitution-making, and to proceed, at once, TO REPLENISH THEIR POCKETS!—He saw it was the temper of the House to adjourn, and he would yield to a motion of that kind.

The resolution to adjourn, being made by Mr. Turner, was seconded and carried.

In the recent Democratic Convention in Connecticut there were seventeen delegates who voted for Hawley, the Republican candidate for Governor last year.

George Francis Train remarks, in a letter written at sea; "Shipboard is the place to read character; all there is in a man pops out when he is sea-sick."

Our Noon Dispatches.

THE PRESIDENT AND GEN. GRANT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5, M.

The President and Stanton have had neither written or personal conversation since August 12th. The President's letter to Grant, dated Jan. 31st, contains this paragraph: "You has found, in our first conference, that the President was desirous of keeping Mr. Stanton out of office, whether sustained in his suspension or not. You know what reasons had induced the President to ask from you a promise. You also know that, in case your views of duty did not accord with his own convictions, it was his purpose to fill your place by another appointment. Even ignoring the existence of a positive understanding between us, these conclusions were plainly deducible from our various conversations. It is certain, however, that, even under these circumstances, you did not offer to return the place to my possession, but, according to your own statements, placed yourself in a position where, could I have anticipated your action, I would have been compelled to ask of you, as I was compelled to ask of your predecessor in the War Department, a letter of resignation, or else to resort to the more disagreeable expedient of suspending you by a successor."

Grant's letter of Feb. 3d., alluding to the President's letter of Jan. 31st., and newspaper articles, says: "I find it only to be but a reiteration, only somewhat more in detail, of the manly and gross misrepresentations contained in these articles and which my statement of the facts, set forth in my letter of the 28th. ult., was intended to correct. Here I re-assert the correctness of my statements in that letter, anything in yours, in reply, to the contrary notwithstanding."

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5, P. M.

Eleven more set speeches are to be made on Reconstruction.

The Reconstruction Committee will report favorably on the bill removing Gov. Patton's disabilities.

The Grant-President correspondence was received, but action was deferred.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5, P. M.

HOUSE.—Beatty, elected from Ohio, sworn in.

The bill forfeiting Southern Railroad lands, after being amended to except the Nashville and Decatur Road, passed—yeas 86, nays 73.

The bill declares forfeited to the United States all public lands granted in 1856, in Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and Florida, to aid in building Railroads, and declares such land open to Homestead entry and settlement under the law of 1866.

A joint resolution, authorizing the Secretary of War to employ counsel to defend Grant, Meade, Ruger, and any other officer or person entrusted with the enforcement of the Reconstruction Acts, against any suit or proceeding in any Court, in regard to official acts, passed.

SENATE.—A resolution, authorizing the Secretary of War to employ counsel to defend Reconstruction officials, passed.

Reconstruction was resumed.

The Bill forfeiting Southern Railroad lands was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, Feb 5, P. M.

In the Convention, to-day, the Bill of Rights was read the first time. It is liberal in its provisions. The right of suffrage is asserted without qualification. The Judiciary, with few exceptions, to be elected by the people, for various terms, varying from one to four years.

The Constitution provides for a school system and a compulsory attendance for twenty-four months. All children, between six and sixteen, to be admitted. All schools and Colleges, supported by public funds, to be open to all, irrespective of race or color.

ALABAMA ELECTION.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 5, P. M.

Eleven hundred votes polled, to-day. Six white men voted, - four of them candidates. The election is progressing quietly.

GEORGIA CONVENTION.

ATLANTA, Feb. 5, P. M.

The Convention passed the relief clause to-day, yeas 82, nays 45. It denies jurisdiction to the Courts over all debts contracted prior to the surrender, but leaves it discretionary with a majority of the Legislature to confer jurisdiction in all cases, except as to the purchase of slaves.

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PUBLIC OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c., in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations. And in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

TURNER'S TIC DOULOUREUX OR Universal Neuralgia PILL.

A SAFE, CERTAIN, AND Speedy Cure FOR NEURALGIA, AND ALL NERVOUS DISEASES.

Its Effects are Magical.

It is the UNFAILING REMEDY in all cases of Neuralgia Facialis, often effecting a perfect cure in less than twenty-four hours, from the use of no more than two OR THREE PILLS.

No other form of Neuralgia or Nervous Disease has failed to yield to this WONDERFUL REMEDIAL AGENT.

Even in the severest cases of Chronic Neuralgia and general nervous derangements,—of many years standing,—affecting the entire system, its use for a few days, or a few weeks at the utmost, always affords the most astonishing relief, and very rarely fails to produce a complete and permanent cure.

It contains no drugs or other materials in the slightest degree injurious, even to the most delicate system, and can ALWAYS be used with PERFECT SAFETY.

It has long been in constant use by many of MOST DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIANS, who give it their unanimous and unqualified approval.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA, $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the

of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in Mutual insurance.

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

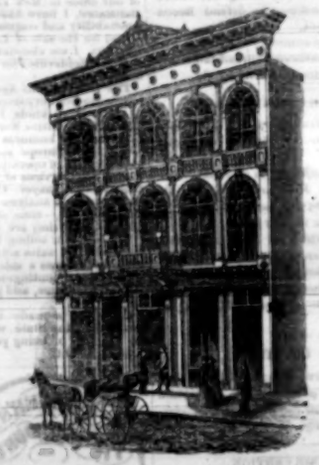
The ÆTNA has over

$1,000,000

ABOVE LIABILITIES.

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION. A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.

HAS 45,000 MEMBERS.



AND HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly,

William E. Pell,
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three coordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it "shall be equal to any."

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 104.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBT.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money in causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April 1868, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be hereafter instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 20th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 15th. day of May, 1865.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel governments, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (costui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 29, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 92, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or considerations of public interest call for it, hold spec[illegible] of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of [illegible] such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 20th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due; provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
